

CUMMER MUSEUM

EXHIBITION-INSPIRED READING

Exhibition: Spirit in the Land

Compiled in partnership with the Jacksonville Public Library.

ADULT & TEENS	KIDS & FAMILY
A Terrible Thing to Waste by Harriet Washington	Be a Good Ancestor by Leona Prince and Gabrielle Prince
Better Than We Found It by Frederick Joseph	Can You Hear the Plants Speak? by Nicholas Hummingbird
Black Earth Wisdom edited by Leah Penniman	Does Earth Feel? 14 Questions for Humans by Marc Majewski
Breaking the Mold by Dana Levy	Once, a Bird by Rina Singh
Braiding Sweetgrass by Robin Wall Kimmerer	One Earth: People of Color Protecting Our Planet by Anuradha Rao
Crossings by Ben Goldfarb	The Coquíes Still Sing by Karina Nicole González
Flight Behavior: A Novel by Barbara Kingsolver	The Water Princess by Susan Verde
Natural Visions: The Power of Images in American Environmental Reform by Finis Dunaway	To Change a Planet by Christina Soontornvat
Silent Spring by Rachel Carson	We are the Water Protectors by Carole Lindstrom
Sounds Wild and Broken by David George Haskell	Zonia's Rain Forest by Juana Martinez-Neal
The Geography of Risk by Gilbert Gaul
The Intersectional Environmentalist by Leah Thomas
The Overstory: A Novel by Richard Powers
The Seed Keeper: A Novel by Diane Wilson
Under A White Sky by Elizabeth Kolbert
Urban Jungle by Ben Wilson	