

Member-Specific Parking FAQ

I am a Member. How do I get my parking permit?

Members can pick up their parking permits at the front desk the next time you visit the Museum.

What happens if I lose my Member parking permit?

Your initial Member hanging parking permit is free, but any replacement pass will cost $30.

Can another Cummer Museum Member pick up my parking permit on my behalf?

Cummer Museum Members may pick up a parking permit for other individuals in your household or named Members on your membership only. You may not pick up permits for Members who are not in your household or named on your membership.

Can my parking permit be mailed to me?

Unfortunately, no. Permits must be picked up in person.

I have an Access Pass, do I have to upgrade my membership to get a parking permit?

Yes. Access Passes include Museum admission only. Other membership perks begin at the Individual Level membership and up.

I have a "+1 Guest" designation on my membership. How many parking permits do I receive?

Parking permits will only be given to named individuals on your membership. This would not include the +1 guest.

Can I pick up the parking permit(s) for both named members on my membership?

Yes. You may pick up parking permits for named members on your membership.

Does my reciprocal membership include free parking at the Cummer Museum?

Complimentary parking is an exclusive benefit for Cummer Museum Members. Reciprocal museum admission benefits do not include free parking.
